

Treace Medical Secures Up to $175 Million in Debt Financing

December 18, 2025

New 5-Year Agreement Provides Continued Financial Strength & Flexibility

PONTE VEDRA, Fla., Dec. 18, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Treace Medical Concepts, Inc. ("Treace" or the "Company") (NasdaqGS: TMCI), a medical technology company driving a fundamental shift in the surgical treatment of bunions and related midfoot deformities, today announced it has entered into a new five year $175 million senior secured loan arrangement with credit funds managed by SLR Capital Partners, consisting of $60 million in term loans funded at close, $65 million of additional term loan availability, and a $50 million revolving credit facility, each subject to certain conditions. Proceeds from the new term loan were used to prepay the Company's $50 million term loan and $4 million drawn under its previously-existing revolving credit facility.

John T. Treace, CEO, Founder and Chairman of Treace, said, "This financing gives us a capital-efficient vehicle, helping our business stay well-capitalized as we work to expand our market and strengthen our competitive position. By securing this non-dilutive $175 million debt facility, we are further reinforcing our balance sheet and enhancing our financial flexibility to advance our commercial strategies and our goal of becoming the standard of care in bunion surgery."

The Company's new loan arrangement includes a maturity date of five years for both the term loan and revolving credit facility. The annual interest rate is equal to the applicable SOFR¹ subject to a floor of 3%, plus (1) 5.05% under the term loan and (2) 4% under the revolving loan. The term loan provides for 48 months of interest-only payments, which can be extended by 12 additional months.

With the completion of this refinancing, the Company now has total liquidity, consisting of cash, cash equivalents, marketable securities, and unused availability under its new credit facility (subject to meeting certain conditions), of approximately $165 million.

Armentum Partners served as financial advisor to Treace on the transaction. Additional detail regarding the foregoing financing is set forth in the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K, filed today with the SEC.

[1] The applicable SOFR means for (1) the term loan, the 1-month term secured overnight financing rate, reset monthly and (2) the revolving loan, the 3-month term secured overnight financing rate, reset daily.

About Treace Medical Concepts

Treace Medical Concepts, Inc. is a medical technology company with the goal of advancing the standard of care for the surgical management of bunion and related midfoot deformities. Bunions are complex 3-dimensional deformities that originate from an unstable joint in the middle of the foot and affect approximately 67 million Americans, of which Treace estimates 1.1 million are annual surgical candidates. Treace has pioneered and patented the Lapiplasty[®] 3D Bunion Correction[®] System – a combination of instruments, implants, and surgical methods designed to surgically correct all three planes of the bunion deformity and secure the unstable joint, addressing the root cause of the bunion and helping patients get back to their active lifestyles. To further support the needs of surgeons and bunion patients, Treace offers its Adductoplasty[®] Midfoot Correction System, designed for reproducible surgical correction of midfoot deformities, two systems for minimally invasive osteotomy procedures, namely the Nanoplasty[®] 3D Minimally Invasive Bunion Correction System and the Percuplasty[™] Percutaneous 3D Bunion Correction System, and the SpeedMTP[®] MTP Fusion System. Treace continues to expand its footprint in the marketplace by extending its SpeedPlate[®] rapid compression implant platform to new applications, as well as providing surgeons with advanced digital solutions with its IntelliGuide[™] patient specific, pre-op planning and cut guide technology.
